

Master of Arts in History

"Excellence close to home" is our Hallmark!

The Department of History at Eastern Kentucky University offers you:

- Small class sizes (student/professor ratio of 12:1);
- Personal interaction with nationally and internationally recognized and published faculty;
- Career and professional counseling;
- Assistantships working with faculty in teaching areas and on research projects;
- Opportunity to gain "hands-on" professional experience through course-related projects and our co-op program.

Our Master of Arts degree offers two options so you can design the program that works for you:

- Thesis option
- Non-Thesis option

Find the program that is right for you!
